JBSE Call for Papers: Special Issue on Recent Advances and Future Directions in Biomechanics
(JBSE: AP Biomech 2023)

バイオエンジニアリング部門
メーリングリスト登録者各位

The 12th Asian Pacific Conference on Biomechanics (AP Biomech 2023)が2023年11月15(水)~18日(土)にクアラルンプール(マレーシア)にて開催されます。そこで、バイオエンジニアリング部門英文ジャーナル(JBSE)では、下記の要領にて、Special Issue on Recent Advances and Future Directions in Biomechanics (JBSE: AP Biomech 2023)を企画いたしました。

Co-Editors:

Toshiro Ohashi, Hokkaido University, Japan

Noor Azuan Bin Abu Osman, University of Malaya, Malaysia (Chair of AP Biomech 2023)

James Goh, National University of Singapore, Singapore (President of APAB)

投稿スケジュール:

2023年12月15日(金): 論文仮タイトルおよび著者の連絡締め切り

2024年1月31日(水): 論文投稿締め切り

2024年7月: 発刊予定

詳細は下記のCall for Papersをご覧ください。
皆様のご投稿を心よりお待ちしております。

Call for Papers: Special Issue on Recent Advances and Future Directions in Biomechanics (JBSE: AP Biomech 2023)

Co-Editors:

Toshiro Ohashi, Hokkaido University, Japan

Noor Azuan Bin Abu Osman, University of Malaya, Malaysia

James Goh, National University of Singapore, Singapore

Aims and Scope:

The 12th Asian-Pacific Conference on Biomechanics (AP Biomech 2023) will be held from November 15th to 18th, 2023, in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, hosted by University of Malaya. To commemorate this exciting conference as well as to enhance researches in the field of biomechanics, a special issue of JBSE, namely, "Special Issue on Recent Advances and Future Directions in Biomechanics" will be issued. It will present a great opportunity to publish your research. The special issue invites papers from a wide range of topics in biomechanical engineering and related scientific fields. All submitted papers will be subjected to the same peer-review process as those accepted for publication in the regular issues.

Publication Schedule:

Submission of provisional title and authors: 15th December, 2023

Submission of manuscript for review: 31st January, 2024

Expected publication date: July, 2024

Guideline for Paper Submission:

Provisional title and authors of a paper have to be sent to one of the three editors by e-mail before 15th December, 2023.

Guideline for Full Paper Submission:

#1. If you do not have an account in the Editorial Manager, please make one first at:

<http://www.editorialmanager.com/journal-jsme/default.aspx>

#2. If your account is made properly, you will receive an ID and a password by e-mail.

#3. To submit a paper, please login to the Editorial Manager and follow the instructions.

<http://www.editorialmanager.com/journal-jsme/default.aspx>
