

Announcing 4 NEW Journals!

Open-access web-based journals for expeditious dissemination of your articles to the world

The Japan Society of Mechanical Engineers has so far published more than 65,000 original papers since 1935. JSME now commences four new style e-journals which are covering all fields of mechanical engineering and fitting to the publication of wide range of valuable findings and knowledge. These are peer-reviewed journals to publish original latest research. The targets of the journals are classified into 12 categories listed below. Authors can choose one of the categories for submitting the paper.

NEW

Editor-in-Chief of Mechanical Engineering Reviews
Katsunori HANAMURA (Tokyo Institute of Technology)

Mechanical Engineering Reviews

as the flagship of the Bulletin of the JSME, provides review articles by the foremost experts in the world

NEW

Editor-in-Chief of Mechanical Engineering Journal
Hitoshi ASANO (Kobe University)

Mechanical Engineering Journal

devoted to full papers of highest quality, thereby stimulating innovation in mechanical engineering

NEW

Editor-in-Chief of Transactions of the JSME (in Japanese)
Masakazu OKAZAKI (Nagaoka University of Technology)

Transactions of the JSME (in Japanese) the heritage of JSME, now renovated and proudly launched toward the world

NEW

Editor-in-Chief of Mechanical Engineering Letters
Masaaki ITABASHI (Tokyo University of Science, Suwa)

Mechanical Engineering Letters

fast-track communications of short papers reporting significant new results

Open for Submission on
1 September, 2014

The first issues of the above new 3 titles will be published at the beginning of 2014, respectively.
Open for Submission on 2 September, 2013

Categories

- Solid Mechanics and Materials Engineering
- Fluids Engineering
- Thermal, Engine and Power Engineering
- Dynamics & Control, Robotics & Mechatronics
- Micro / Nano Science and Technology
- Computational Mechanics
- Design, Systems, and Manufacturing
- Bio, Medical, Sports and Human Engineering
- Environmental and Process Engineering, Safety
- Transportation and Logistics
