

Confirm matters and Copyright transfer

Authors who submit their papers to Special Issue of MIPE2009 (JSME journal) are asked to agree the following conformation matters and the copyright transfer which appears in the submission procedure on the web site. Guidelines for authors which contains the detailed information of the submission procedure is available on the website: <http://www.i-product.biz/jsme/eng/data/contribution.html>

I. Confirm matters

- (1) The copyright for my manuscript or any other with substantially the same contents has not been transferred to any other Journal or to any other Society for presentation.
- (2) I agree to pay a mandatory charge of published paper when the manuscript is published in the Journal of Biomechanical Science and Engineering.

II. Copyright transfer

I hereby assign and transfer all copyright privileges of the paper to the Japan Society of Mechanical Engineers upon acceptance of the Note:

- (1) In principle, the society does not interfere with the author(s) usage of his (their) articles for reproduction, translation of adaptation. However, when the full article is reproduced by the author(s), written permission for reproduction must be obtained from the Society.
- (2) When requests for permission of reproduction of reuse of articles are received by the Society, the Society may issue permission on behalf of the author(s).